

David's Thanksgiving

David, a regular guest at the HTC, is thankful that he no longer has to sleep in the bushes behind Harrah's Casino. Thanks to the combined efforts of the Harry Tompson Center and Depaul USA, David is now housed in what he calls "his palace." Program Director Kip Barard, pictured with David above, was the first to learn about the circumstances that led to David's homelessness. Within a few weeks, Kip was able to navigate David into Depaul USA's housing program.

Having been homeless for two years, David is incredibly grateful that he will be able to spend the holidays housed. To read more of David's journey from the bushes to a palace, read his Story of Courage.

Though David is now housed, there are still many more sleeping on the streets in the cold. Together with our community partners, the Harry Tompson Center is working towards a world where everyone has a home. We are thankful for all of our donors, funders, and volunteers. Your efforts and support allow us to continue in our mission of serving people experiencing hardship. Thank you and Happy Thanksgiving!
