On a recent Monday morning, HTC volunteer and supporter Steve Romig visits with guests Wayne and Hal while coordinating the Phone Room, which serves close to 100 guests every day. Steve also helps guests store their backpacks for the day, loans out bike repair equipment and distributes over-the-counter medication for simple aches and pains. Volunteers and supporters like Steve are what keeps us and our mission going!

HTC guests and volunteers are also excited for the upcoming Gala! Ricky Breaux, the Louisiana Soapman, has been hard at work putting his artistic touches on several items that will be available for bidding at the Silent Auction. He even donated a few of his signature soap carvings!

Sarah, another guest, has donated three beautiful paintings for the cause as well. Artist and HTC volunteer Diana Jackson has been overseeing weekly art classes, where guests are encouraged to express themselves freely. Several of these guests have even been helping Diana prepare artwork for the auction!
